

Intelligent Headlamp Control (IHC)

Optimal night vision is essential particularly at night when the risk of an accident is twice as great as during the day.

Intelligent Headlamp Control enables better vision at night. Delegate the permanent tiring change of high and low beam to your 'electronic co-pilot'. The system takes oncoming vehicles and those traveling ahead of the driver's vehicle into account, ensuring that the headlamps are set to provide optimum lighting in any situation.

